

Dear

Huayun Chinese Orchestra invites you to enjoy our special concert at 2:00 pm on Sunday, September 24, 2023, at UTD's SSA Auditorium!

As the most active Chinese traditional music group in North Texas, Huayun Orchestra is committed to carrying forward the national art and promoting cultural exchanges.

Since its inception, Huayun has developed into an orchestral band including erhu, pipa, zheng, ruan, bamboo flute, yangqin, liuqin, cello, various percussion, and others. It is aimed at Chinese traditional music education and promotion, so that more Americans and overseas Chinese can benefit from our performing in understanding Chinese music culture.

Huayun started its annual concert in year 2014 with UTD sponsorship. It has also performed on stages in the Crow Asian Art Festival, Dallas Chinese Spring Festival, as well as multiple cities' Chinese cultural events in DFW area.

Huayun Orchestra is a non-profit organization registered in Texas (501c3). It cannot survive without your strong support and help. Our members and volunteers dedicate their great love and deep gratitude to the community in their spare time.

We hope that you are able to support this orchestra and sponsor this and our future concerts. We will issue you a tax credit certificate for your sponsorship, and will provide guests seats and written notes of thanks to the sponsors. According to your donation amount we will include your ads in the program book, so that your generous sponsorship and contribution to the community can be recognized. Contact us for details; together we will carry forward the Chinese traditional music and its culture and spirit.

You can find a copy of previous program books on our website, as well as videos of many of our performances. Huayun <http://huayunband.org/>
