华韵民乐团 Huayun Chinese Orchestra

Founded in 2012, Huayun Chinese Orchestra brings together professional and amateur musicians, teachers, and students to share traditional Chinese instruments with the community. Sponsored by the UTD Center for Asian Studies, it has presented annual UTD concerts since 2014 and performs for cities, schools, companies, and cultural events across Dallas–Fort Worth.

Dr. 梅予馨 Yuxin Mei — Pipa

Dr. Yuxin Mei is a pipa virtuoso, Chinese music educator and founding director of the University of North Texas Chinese Ensemble. She shapes its repertoire, arrangements, and educational programming, sharing traditional Silk and Bamboo music with audiences across Dallas–Fort Worth.

Dr. 王鹏 Peng Wang — Double Bass

Dr. Peng Wang is a double bass soloist, educator and conductor who trained at the Shenyang Conservatory of Music and earned a doctorate at Texas Christian University. Huayun's music director, he has performed with the Fort Worth Symphony, Plano Symphony, and Macao Orchestra.

王丹 Dan Wang — Conductor & Sheng

Dan Wang is a conductor and sheng player with Huayun Chinese Orchestra. In this concert, she is featured as sheng soloist in Grassland Cavalry and Joyous Song of the Axi People.

陈大欣 Daniel Chen — Erhu & Banhu

Daniel Chen is an erhu player and one of Huayun's music and art directors. His performances also feature the gaohu and banhu; in this program, he leads Crescent Moon before Dawn on banhu.

田程锦 Amy Tian — Pipa

Amy Tian is a pipa performer trained at the Shanghai Theatre Academy's affiliated high school and Texas Christian University. Formerly principal pipa of the Shanghai Theatre Academy Chinese Orchestra, she has performed widely in China and the United States.

于璐兰 Evelyn Yu — Guzheng

Guzheng performer and educator Evelyn Yu began studying at twelve. She holds Level 10 certification with Excellence from the China Nationalities Orchestra Society and a master's in Curriculum and Instruction from Texas A&M University.
